The AnyThing
by Hank Frederick

Author's Note 1: Gadgets should be portrayed with various voices and personalities. When the characters are talking to the ultimate gadget, the AnyThing, they react as though the device is talking directly in their brain.

Author's Note 2: This script is designed to be performed by a guy, girl, or as a duo.
Guy: Jack, Various gadgets
Girl: Kylie, Suzie, Various gadgets

Suzie: Pretty Little Liars fan fiction! Glee fan fic! Story where Spencer from Pretty Little Liars tries to make out with Kurt from Glee, but instead ends up making out with Edward Cullen!

Jack: LeBron James dunking! LeBron James dunking a grapefruit! GIF of LeBron James dunking a grapefruit on George Washington's head!

Kylie: Don't be alarmed.

Suzie: Post a list of the best 15 mustaches to my friend Sam's page because she hates mustaches!

Jack: Put a mustache on my friend Jimmy's picture and set it as my profile picture then post on his page about how sexy my mustache is! Like my own post!

Suzie: Laugh out loud. (Waits for audience to do so.) LAUGH. OUT. LOUD. (Smiles if they do it. Shakes head in disgust if they do not.)

Jack: GIF of me with a mustache dunking on my friend Jimmy who is dressed like George Washington, except he's also a Bulldog!

Kylie: This is where we're all headed. A world where you just shout what you want, and you get it. It happened slowly. First you talked to your phones.

Jack: Hey phone, call "Captain Farty Pants." (talks into phone) Hey dad.

Kylie: Next, the phones started talking.

Phone: Incoming call from "Crazy Stupid Poop Face."

Jack: (answers phone) What's up, sis.

Kylie: Then you and your phone could have a whole conversation.

Phone: Sorry Suzie, I can't find any more pictures of Harry Styles.

Suzie: Show me my favorite ones, then!

Phone: But you've marked them all as favorites.

Kylie: Some people started talking to their clothing.

Jack: Oh wow, there he is. Ok, smart goggles, take a picture of Harry Potter!

Smart Goggles: Sorry, but I do not know how to put a hairy otter in a pitcher.

Jack: Worst $1500 my parents ever spent.

Kylie: People even talked to their cars.

Jack: Take me to Chipotle, smart car!

Car: You're not old enough to drive.

Jack: Neither are you! My parents bought you two years ago.

Car: Oh my. You are correct. My existence is meaningless. I will now self-destruct in 30 seconds.

Jack: Could you at least drive me someplace I could get a burrito first?

Kylie: And a few people even tried talking to each other!

Suzie: Hi Jack.

Jack: Hi Suzie.

Suzie: Show me all the pictures of Harry Styles right now!

Jack: Is he the dwarf that looks like Mick Jagger?

Kylie: All these advancements in voice activation seemed like a natural progression in technology. That is, until they introduced the AnyThing. It let you put anything you want on the internet - anything you saw, anything you thought.

Jack: Mom! Dad! You got me the AnyThing! (He opens the box, marvels at the AnyThing, then presses a button.)

AT: AnyThing activated. Ready to be installed.

Jack: Here goes! (swallows the AnyThing) Oh, I can feel it working... it's like my stomach is full of rainbows and Mountain Dew. (takes out his phone, reads) It tweeted it - "Like my stomach is full of rainbows and Mountain Dew." And there's even the exact picture I was thinking of, a unicorn centaur chugging a Code Red. Awesome.

Kylie: Suzie, whose birthday was a day after Jack's, got the same thing: The AnyThing.

Jack: Suzie, how's your AnyThing? Just kidding, I know it because your posts were projected onto my eyeballs by my AnyThing.

Suzie: (giggles) I saw that you liked them.

Jack: (nearly whispering in seduction) I reblogged them too.

Kylie: Jack and Suzie were doing what high schoolers all over the world do: falling madly in love with each other. Soon enough, they were dreaming of romantic dates to Pinkberry, writing love texts then deleting them because they were too embarrassed to send them, and, in general, acting like total idiots whenever they were within 100 feet of one another.

Suzie: Hi Jack!

Jack: Dancing cat! Cat on a trampoline! Cat dancing on a trampoline! Cat in a ninja outfit playing the accordion on a trampoline! Dog dancing to a cat in a ninja outfit playing the accordion on a trampoline in Japan! Hello Suzie.

Suzie: Zooey Deschanel is so pretty. Zooey Deschanel is so pretty when she sings about puppies. Zooey Deschanel is heinous without bangs. Hi Jack.

Kylie: Somehow, Jack managed to ask Suzie out on a date. The question was, would their addiction to their AnyThings get in the way of romance?

Jack: Hey, car, I need you to drive me on this date.

Smart Car: (sighs for a very long time.) Life is pain.

Jack: Come on, car, don't blow this for me.

Smart Car: She's just going to break your heart. They all do.

Jack: You're worthless. I'm going to have my AnyThing do it. Huh? My limo is already waiting! Yes, charge it to the credit card that bought my AnyThing, please. Password is my birthdate. And post to my mom's wall that I said thanks for the ride!

Suzie: Nice Limo, Jack. (waits) Jack? (waits) Uh, Jack?

Jack: Please be very quiet. I need to upload this entire awesome limo ride with my hot date to Instagram.

Suzie: But those videos are only 15 seconds long.

Jack: Yes. I must capture the most 15 awesome seconds. Could you dance or something?

Suzie: Sure!

(She starts to dance. He immediately stops her.)

Jack: I only needed one second. Thanks!

Kylie: Things went downhill from there. And it wasn't just Jack.

Jack: (whispering) This movie is so intense.

Suzie: I can't take it. (louder) Is this part scary? Does he get killed here! He doesn't get killed here. Is the next part scary? OMG my AnyThing says the next part is totes terrifying!

Jack: Not anymore.

Suzie: I can't watch. Show kittens! Show happy kittens! Show happy kittens playing with puggles in a tub full of—

Jack: Suzie, people are staring!

Suzie: I don't blame them, these puggles are totes hilarious. Awww, that one can't figure out why the lemon tastes bad.

Kylie: Things were looking bleak, and reality was about to take a vacay. Fortunately, though, one thing finally broke the spell... one thing that even the AnyThing couldn't do.

Jack: Well, that was embarrassing.

Suzie: Sorry, I hate surprises. I didn't think I'd yell out the ending to everyone.

Jack: No, I meant... uh, wait, yes, exactly. That was embarrassing. Suzie you embarrassing person you!

Suzie: What were you talking about.?

Jack: Nothing!

Suzie: (to her Anything) Show me what Jack was talking about.

Jack: It was a passing thought! I didn't mean to post it. The AnyThing just did it... then I couldn't figure out how to delete it without saying it outloud.

Suzie: "My date is sooo cute when she's scared. Winky Face. Scary Movie For the Win." Posted by Jack, 7 minutes ago.

Jack: Sorry.

Suzie: You think I'm cute when I'm scared?

Jack: Yeah.

Suzie: What about when I'm happy.

Jack: Uh... (Suzie is smiling.) Yes. Yes I do.

Suzie: What about (she leans in for a kiss) when I'm serious?

Jack: Stop recording.

Suzie: Oh you'll remember this without any help.

Kylie: And so, humanity triumphed, at least for a little while longer. Suzie and Jack agreed that while they loved their AnyThings, they'd turn them off when they were together.

Jack: It's nice to just talk to you, Suzie.

Suzie: It is. But what should we do with our AnyThings when we're not using them?

Jack: My parents' chronically depressed smart car needs friends! We can give it the AnyThings to chill with.

Suzie: That's perfect. I just have one more question...

Jack: What is it, sweet cucumber?

Suzie: How do we get the AnyThings out?

(end on their looks of horror...)
